Worship God

Synopsis

Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve (Matt. 4.10). This is the principal duty of man. God alone is worthy to be worshipped. But this prerogative of God is fiercely contested in the universe. Satan tries to rob God of His worship, and man is tempted to worship anything other than God himself. The Lord Jesus came into this world to restore worship to God. He declared: "the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers" (John 4.23). As the redeemed children of God, we now have the privilege of being true worshippers. It is therefore imperative for us to know what worship is and how we should worship. This missing jewel must be recovered in the Church.

Customer Reviews

I've been in search for answers about unanswered prayer and finally found them in this book. Nee make clear, succinct points about our relationship to God that I haven't found elsewhere. In particular, he writes about "the offense of the Lord" ...to love and trust God's ways, as well as Him. I bought this copy for a friend.

Sometimes we think we know God so well, and we may well know Him as Abba Father, but to know Him as "God" is needs be an ever increasing knowledge.....this book will give insight into that knowledge.

Wonderful publication.A very valuable addition to my research library.Very informative and easy reading. Extremely pleased with this purchase. Highly recommend to others.

The content of this book is outstanding, unfortunately, since the chapters are composed of actual messages that Nee wrote, and not one complete work, everything does not seem to flow to well together. That being said, the content itself is great.
